Wednesday's best

8:00 p.m. (11) GREAT PERFORMANCES. "Dance in America: Balanchine II." A tribute to George Balanchine that includes three excerpts from his full-length work, "Jewels," and the "Stravinsky Violin Concerto." Karin von Aroldingen and Sean Lavery perform "Emeralds," with music by Faure; Patricia McBride and Robert Weiss perform the pas de deux from "Rubies," to music by Stravinsky; and Suzanne Farrell and Peter Martin partner for the pas de deux from "Diamonds," with music by Tchaikovsky. The program concludes with the "Stravinsky Violin Concerto," featuring Kay Mazzo, Peter Martins, Bart Cook, and Karin von Aroldingen.

9:00 p.m. (7) VEGA$. In "Love, Laugh, or Die," Dan Tanna and his reluctant assistant, Binzer, get fitted for cement overshoes as a promise of a watery death when they get too close on the trail of a man who has killed a professional playgirl. With Robert Urich and Bart Braverman.
