Dear Dennis,

I'm not offended. Facts are facts.

Would you send me Sandy's address at Stanford and the parents' in Chicago? Maybe I can appease them all by assuring them I know the point system doesn't necessarily indicate the most qualified swimmer as well as indicate to them that some justice is involved for me personally as I was by far the best in 1970 and 1971 and never got World Champion because I didn't compete enough. They might appreciate some humble pie on my part.

Play time is over. Working translating for NYU Press, doing some incompletes before school begins again, and getting to be a decent squash player. Will compete this winter on the Harvard Women's Squash Team out of New York. Don't ask me how that happened.

How about your team? Undefeated this year?

I know I can make that Ontario double-crossing. After St. John (if they come up w/the money) will go back to Toronto and wait for good weather. Money-wise, it's too bad I didn't do it because next summer there will be hundreds of attempts up there and the public appeal will die. Not being 14 and a Canadian hurts also.

Keep me posted. On anything.

Diana
