Never give up

This is the billboard of Leonardo di Caprio with his Oscar for his portrayal of a brave survivor in The Revenant. Congrats, Leo, to all of you who worked on this fine film.

This is my poster at the end of the Cuba Swim.
In my good fortune of traveling the world, I find all kinds of people display powerful will to dig down and find their grit.
We survive, we prevail, if we just don't give up.
