Bonnie's Report: 645pm. Swim Time: 33 Hours 45 minutes

Bonnie's Report 645pm September 1, 2013, Swim Time: 33:45

"I think Diana is feeling strong and very coherent. She is joking for the first time all day."

"The only concern is that she is throwing up everything she eats. She's quite nauseous from sea salt, but that's to be expected. It's very normal for her and we've seen it in any of her swims over 15 hours or so. We're giving her enough calories and nutrition. We're just going to keep feeding her and we hope that some of it is going down. She's not weak. Her stroke count hasn't changed."

About this capture

"We're holding off putting on the mask tonight because Angel and the shark divers haven't seen ANY box jellies. They've seen a few moon jellies and other creatures, but she can live with a little sting from a moon jelly. The only thing we're worried about is box jellyfish. If that changes, we'll put the mask on. It's a nightmare and very uncomfortable for Diana. She's wearing the rest of the suit, so only parts of her face are exposed."
