24 Hour Update from Navigator John Bartlett

Update from Navigator John Bartlett Sunday, 8:59 a.m., 24:00 Swim time

Diana has swim 38.18 statute miles, as the crow flies. She is averaging 1.6 mph over the 24 hours. Her position is 23 '35' N and 82' 14.3' W

"She's right on the bullseye. We are just approaching the strongest flow of the Gulfstream about 15 miles ahead of us. At that point, the flow direction will change and that will help us big time. We're trying to get into that position that we observed on the way over."
