With all the tension of waiting for these trade winds to give us break, the Key West based crew got into our birthday spirit (Dee Brady and I share Aug 22) on a magical private island in the middle Keys, named Seabird Key.

Dee, Pauline and John gave me the painting they had commissioned....and I cried.

It's my companion boat, Voyager, rendered from a photograph during our 2011 attempt from Cuba. There they are, each crew member on the job, making our way. This will live on my wall at home forever more. An impression more than a realism. The evocation of a feeling of camaraderie. The undeniable vastness and majesty of the ocean. My Team. My Boat. The Expedition pulsing with adventuresome spirit.

A reminder to me that this Cuba Swim journey has been a thrilling four years of discovery and passion and friendship. ONWARD, Voyager....ONWARD!!!
