"DARE TO DREAM"

I was privileged to speak at TEDx Berlin over the Thanksgiving holiday. The theme of this particular conference was Crossing Borders, from the young Carolina Gonzalez-Bunster who has founded the Walkabout Foundation whereby she delivers state-of-the-art wheel chairs in developing countries, all on the heels of her brother becoming paralyzed after a devastating car accident.....to the elderly and mesmerizing neurologist/psychiatrist Peter Fenwick who speaks to the final cross-over from this life to what may lie beyond.

For my part, being invited into the TED family has opened my eyes to a vast array of individuals dedicated to unique and life-changing works in today's world.
