WOMEN STAND UP!

Only six days until Election Day. It's CRISIS TIME. Women, and those of you good men in support of women's rights, come on now, we must stand up for President Obama.

We can heartily debate health care, the economy and foreign policy....as we should....but if there is one glaring no-brainer, it's the human rights issue that teeters in the balance of this election: women's rights.

We MUST NOT go backward. We WILL NOT return to the days of illegal clinics along dark hallways and be gouged with wire hangers. We CANNOT let the decades (no centuries) of work toward our freedom come undone in this 21st century.

Our forefathers established separation of Church and State. If an individual is devoted to a particular religion and those tenets forbid abortion in any situation, rape included, then it is that individual's right to bide by those tenets.

It is not for government to sweep across the land and deny women their freedom of choice for any reason.

Governor Romney is clear on several anti-women points:

- His immediate plan is to overturn Roe Vs Wade, one of the most important pieces of legislation in our country's history.
- He has stated that he will quickly and entirely defund Planned Parenthood, the organization that has saved countless teenagers' futures.
- He will slash Family Planning Programs.
- He will axe the Affordable Care Act.

Romney supports a candidate who claims rape is God's will. And without Planned Parenthood and the Affordable Care Act, where will those rape victims turn for crisis intervention?

We MUST NOT bring Governor Romney to presidential power, influencing women's rights through his Supreme Court and Congressional colleagues. We MUST let President Obama continue to protect and respect our freedom of choice.
