Captain Beach reports on current conditions

Captain Brandon Beach files this report from aboard the Quest, which is carrying Diana's media team.

We're out here in the middle of the Florida straits about smack dab in the middle of the Gulf Stream, as it is. Headed about due north, but because of the Gulf Stream, we are making a slight track to the east, north east. Gulf Streams is just a few knots pushing to the east. Seas are pretty calm, got about one foot chop, single digit winds out of the south east. The skies are clear, the sun high in the sky. Otherwise it's a pretty gorgeous day out here in the middle of the ocean.
