NRDC, Welcome Aboard!

Posted by Xtreme Dream Team on Jul 9, 2012 in 2012 Training, Blog, Slider | 1 comment

We here at Xtreme Dream central are THRILLED to announce that NRDC, Natural Resources Defense Council, has dived in to support our mission of inspiration and will share donations to their crucial work on behalf of the environment on our site with our Swim from Cuba to Florida.

The NRDC's impressive group of scientists and lawyers tirelessly defend our wildlife, our waterways, our forests, a push toward clean energy.....and our oceans.

The Cuba Swim traverses a wild and magnificent stretch of ocean. All of us remark way out there that our planet is a sparkling blue jewel because of our mysterious seas. But with the escalation of oil spills and large ship waste dumping and sewage contamination, many of our nation's once-glorious beaches are now suffering.
