The "Holiday Season" is an unapologetic chance to reach out, get in touch with our humanity, feel our universality of being and share love for love's sake

Happy Holidays to you too, Diana! I noticed a little snowflake icon in the video's toolbar – clicked on it, and your video started snowing... Merry Christmas! Merry Christmas to Bonnie, and the whole gang too!

Although I would disagree with your comment ".....barely means anything to anybody anymore," I concur with the joyful time with friends and not concentrating on work so much. I think it's more a time of reflection at the end of the year.....altruistic thoughts about the needs of others....hence it's kinda "religious" I suppose. Charles Dickens possibly abstracted this theme from the Nativity to focusing on the needs of the poor in "A Christmas Carol."

Merry Christmas, Diana, from a big fan. But Christmas does have a religious meaning still for millions of people, me being one of them. It is also about family and friends...love it. have a wonderful day and a happy new year!
