Roz Savage and Diana Nyad in conversation, Part 4

On October 4, 2011, Roz Savage became the first woman to row across the "Big Three" oceans of the world — the Atlantic, Pacific, and Indian. Upon reaching dry land, she made a call to Diana to reflect on her experience pursuing her "Xtreme Dream."

Loved part 4, am severely covetous of Roz's rowboat. Had to sell my worn-out 12-footer this spring and miss it. Next spring.....

I would love to see you in Philly.. only 45 min from my home but as you point out in your wonderful interview with Roz.. things are bad here.. I teach swimming and hubby in on disability but will think of you being so close on the 12th. So glad to know you are healing and you look great. Your number one fav!!! I wear my xtime dream bracelet everyday in the pool and encourage all my young swimmers to dream big and make that dream a reality. Thank you for everything you do and stand for.. You are the best!!!!
