I believe the above accolades are deserved. But at the same time I can't help but think the real dream is to be able to realise one is ultimately not in control, I think the "setbacks" whether with weather , animal encounters, and "new medicines" come to realise the journey you will embark on will set you free from the constraints that this dream has had on you... Best wishes....

With a little added technology-like a net to clear the water ahead of you of men of war, etc-next time you WILL be able to do it!!!! You have my amazed admiration for your efforts – we will all be behind you in the next attempt!!!! YOU CAN DO IT!!!!!!!

As a just turned sixty year old, with love of swimming, running and bicycling, but stopped (hopefully only temporarily) with lingering injuries, you truly inspire with your passion, resolve and spirit.
