Hello Diana, I remember your last attempt at crossing, and the thing that is imprinted in my mind is how dried your mouth was when they pulled you out of the water and how dissapointed you were when they did, you have inspired e always and I do still swim (not the last 6 months), not as much as you do but I do love it, you will always be my hero, I will be watching again and pulling and praying for you, good luck hope the water, the weather and nature cooperates this time, best regards from Tj, Lila!!

Wow! You are a real dreamer. I'm pulling for you! I was just blogging about being a dreamer at <http://teddys-world.com/teddys-blog.html> and I found you. I wonder how you do something as big as this swim? I guess you could think of it as one hundred and three one mile swims. I can't swim worth beans but my heart is with you. Good luck to you!
