Diana's Angels in St. Maarten

Posted by admin on Jun 24, 2011 in Blog | 2 comments

See this big guy? Name is Mark Sollinger. Athlete. Stand-up guy. 100% immersed in the Xtreme Dream. Mark and his wife Angie live in St Maarten and became veritable angels to me over the course of tough training there this year. From arranging beautiful hotel accommodations to showing up at 5am with ice and gear to spending the days out on the water with encouragement and solutions to ongoing issues to preparing perfect and healthy meals, family Sollinger proved themselves the REAL DEAL. New and yet seemingly old, dear, trusted friends.

They have already moved to Key West, as the rest of the Ops Team prepares to get settled there over the next few days. Mark will be one of our navigation escort boat drivers. Angie will be photographer for our social media team. Every time I take my first stroke of a long training swim, Mark yells out: "Rock Steady". You rock, family Sollinger. How lucky I am to know you. What a grand adventure we're about to share.

Amazing how great people find each other when pursuing a great dream. Mark and Angie are such terrific people- excellent folks to have in your corner.

Rock Steady Diana !
