Diana Supports Sanjay Gupta's 6-Pack" Team

Posted by Diana Nyad on Jul 19, 2010 in Blog | 0 comments

Our team was thrilled when two months ago CNN made the decision to throw themselves into our Cuba Swim endeavor as the exclusive broadcaster. We were especially honored to catch their medical correspondent Sanjay Gupta's interest. Sanjay is a brilliant individual, from his former position as Hilary Clinton's speechwriter to his writings for the Economist, to his offer of Surgeon General post in the Obama admin, to his surgeries on the ground in Haiti, to his worldwide medical reporting for CNN. Sanjay and his entire team, producer Matt Sloane leading their mission, are totally immersed in our project. They reported every hour during last week's 24-hour swim. And they continue to update developments as we approach the big Cuba Swim. To show my admiration for both Sanjay's enthusiasm and CNN's dedication to my Xtreme Dream, I came to New York this past week-end to root Sanjay and the CNN "6-pack" team of 6 viewers who all competed in their first triathlon. Gave them a motivational pep talk the night before, cheered them on as they all dove into the Hudson River (one of my fondest swimming memories as I was the first woman to swim around Manhattan back in 1975!), and ALL OF THEM finished with great gusto in Central Park.
